

From: Kay Mouradian [<mailto:cmouradian@earthlink.net>]
Sent: Wednesday, October 07, 2015 3:34 PM
To: 'hssframework@cde.ca.gov'
Subject: Attachment D, page 455

To the IQC Framework Committee Members:

Re: Modification of Attachment D. Beginning on page 455, line 622, the phrase, “because of Armenian nationalist aspirations and evidence of collaboration with Russian against the Turkish state” has been deleted.

This change has been made to the document posted on the IQC Web site.

Please consider changing the remaining part of the sentence to read:

Page 456 lines:619-621

as the Ottoman Empire collapsed, the Turkish government ordered the mass deportation of Armenians from their historic home land in Anatolia.

Wikipedia:

Traditionally, Anatolia is considered to extend in the east to a line between the Gulf of İskenderun and the Black Sea to what is historically known as the Armenian Highlands (Armenia Major)

Thus, traditionally Anatolia is the territory that comprises approximately the western two-thirds of the Asian part of Turkey. However, since the Armenian Genocide and declaration of the Turkish Republic in 1923, the Armenian Highlands had been renamed Eastern Anatolia by the Turkish government<sup>[3]</sup> and Anatolia is often considered to be synonymous with Asian Turkey, which comprises almost the entire country.

Thank you.

Kay Mouradian EdD
Professor Emerita Education
Los Angeles Community College District
Los Angeles Trade Technical College